ARMAMENT AND TANK PLANT
"BOLSHEVIK" 232
LENINGRAD, USSR

The Armament and Tank Plant "Bolshevik" 232, located in southwest Leningrad, is one of the six large machine plants in the city. It is an important armament and heavy machine plant with extensive steel producing and finishing facilities.

A comparison of [REDACTED] reveals relatively few changes in the major buildings of the plant. One shop (item 4) has been expanded, and a new oil storage tank (item 6) has been added. Several small buildings have been removed and other small buildings have been built.

Open stores are evident throughout this plant, but scale of photography precludes identification of this material.

Physical changes in this plant are described and identified by corresponding numbers on the accompanying annotated [REDACTED]
